CLASSIFICATION CONTIDENTIAL  CLASSIFICATION REPORT  CONFIDENTIAL  CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY  INFORMATION REPORT  CONFIDENTIAL  CONFIDENTIAL  DATE DISTR.  DATE DISTR.  DATE DISTR.  OL Dec.  COUNTRY  Chinas  COUNTRY  CO			,			ور 146 سیر ر د (۱۵۱ دن پر میمارس
CLASSIFICATION REPORT COUNTRY  INFORMATION REPORT  COUNTRY China  UBJECT Chinese Communist Plans Concerning Ecrean War  NO. OF PAGES  25X1A  NO. OF ENCLS.  ARTE OF 25X1A  FOR 1 SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE DATE DESTRICT OF REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE Communist demands. They believe that, by the time they reach it, an agreement will be reached with the United Retions and the Dutied States which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands of the Communist demands of the Communist demands of the Communist demands of the Communist of the Communist of the Communist demands of the Communist demands of the Communist state of the Communist demands of the Communist d	1/10	340005-5 25X1A	: CIA-RDP82-00457R0	proved For Release 2004/01/2	Арр
UNITEY Chinase Communists Plans Concerning Ecrean War NO. OF PAGES 2  LACE 25X1A NO. OF ENCLS.  COUNTRY Chinase Communists Plans Concerning Ecrean War NO. OF PAGES 2  NO. OF ENCLS.  COUNTRY Chinase Communists Plans Concerning Ecrean War NO. OF PAGES 2  NO. OF ENCLS.  COUNTRY Chinase Communists Plans Concerning Ecrean War NO. OF ENCLS.  COUNTRY Chinase Communists Plans Concerning Ecrean War No. OF PAGES 2  NO. OF ENCLS.  COUNTRY Chinase Communists Plans Concerning Ecrean War No. OF PAGES 2  In the Chinase Communists Plans Concerning Ecrean War No. OF PAGES 2  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE CHINASE COMMUNICATION  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  TH	7 7 7			CLASSIFICATION SHOPE
URJECT Chinese Communist Plans Concerning Eorean War NO. OF PAGES 2  LACE 25X1A NO. OF ENCLS.  ANTE OF 25X1A SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE Chinese Communists plan to move to the 38th Parallel. They believe that when United Nations through a large extent grant the Communist to Communist They believe that when United Nations through a large extent grant the Communist to Communist	ું ' કું '	NO.
UBJECT Chinese Communist Plans Concerning Eorean War NO. OF PAGES  AND OF ENCLS.
URLECT Chinese Communist Flans Concerning Ecrean War NO. OF PAGES  25X1A  NO. OF ENCLS.  SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  THE OF 25X1A SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.  THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  THE Chinese Communists plan to move to the 36th Parallel. They believe that when United Nations troops are pushed back to the 36th Parallel, they will either withdraw from Korea entirely or reach such an agreement with the Chinese.  2. Use of the atomic bomb in Korea as tactical support for United Nations troops are pushed back to the 36th Parallel, they will either withdraw from Korea bonding inside the Hannburnan border is another matter; the final decision on war elsewhere would be left to the USSR. Communist officials, however, are absolutely confident that the United Nations will not use the atom bomb.  3. The Soviots have apparently convined the Chinese Communists that the United States will not be capable of war for the next six months and that settlement of the Korean difficulty to prevent its streading into war must occur with the Automatical Parallel. They have the Cammunists and Hos Soviots since the United States will in that openiod. Hore than a six-amonth delay on an agreement would be undesirable for the Camminists and the Soviots since the United States will in the openiod. Hore than a six-amonth delay on an agreement would be undes	7050	STR. Of Doc	TUENTIAL	CON	China	OUNTRY
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  1. The Chinese Communists plan to move to the 36th Parallel. They believe that, by the time they reach it, an agreement will be reached with the United Nations and the United States which will to a large extent great entirely or reach such an agreement with the Chinese Communist demands. They believe that when United Nations troops are pushed back to the 36th Parallel, they will either withdraw from Korea entirely or reach such an agreement with the Chinese.  2. Use of the atomic bomb in Korea as tactical support for United Nations troops will not precipitate war in other areas. Use of strategic atom bombing inside the Hanchurian border is another matter; the final decision on war eleswhere would be left to the USER. Communist officials, however, are absolutely confident that the United Nations will not use the atom bomb.  3. The Sovicts have a parontly convinced the Chinese Communists that the United States will not be expable of war for the next six months and that settlement of the Korean difficulty to prevent its spreading into war must coru with in that ported. More than a six-month delay on an agreement would be undestrable for the Cora unists and the Sevicts since the United States will then be expable of war, which the Chinese and Sevicts do not desire.*  4. The Chinese Communists are worried about the concentration of their bost-trained and best-equipped armics in Hanchuria and Rorth China. They agreed to a full-scale entry into the Korean conflict only after the USER promised 300,000 Soviet troops as well as naval and air support in case of war with the United States, at	, 1 900	D 000		mmunist Plans Concerning		UBJECT
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION  1. The Chinese Communists plan to move to the 38th Parallel. They believe that, by the time they reach it, an agreement will be reached with the United Nations and the United States which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe that when United Nations troops are pushed back to the 38th Parallel, they will either withdraw from Korea entirely or reach such an agreement with the Chinese.  2. Use of the atomic bomb in Korea as tactical support for United Nations troops will not precipitate war in other areas. Use of strategic atom bombing incide the Hanchurian border is another matter; the final decision on war elsewhere would be left to the USER. Communist officials, however, are absolutely confident that the United Nations will not use the atom bomb.  3. The Soviets have apparently convinced the Chinese Communists that the United States will not be capable of war for the next six months and that settlement of the Korea difficulty to prevent its spreading into war must occur with in that period. Hore than a six-menth delay on an agreement would be undesirable for the Corruntists and the Sevicts since the United States will have be capable of war, which the Chinese and Sevicts do not desire.*  1. The Chinese Communists are vorried about the concentration of their promised 300,000 Soviet troops as well as naval and air support in case of war with the United States should arm and uso Japanese troops in Korea, the CONFIDENTIAL		ENCLS.	Ņ		25X1A
This is unevaluated in the second of the strong of the str					25X1A
1. The Chinese Communists plan to move to the 36th Parallel. They believe that, by the time they reach it, an agreement will be reached with the United Nations and the United States which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe that when United Nations troops are pushed back to the 36th Parallel, they will either withdraw from Korea entirely or reach such an agreement with the Chinese.  2. Use of the atomic bomb in Korea as tactical support for United Nations troops will not precipitate wer in other areas. Use of strategic atom bombing inside the Handhurian border is another matter; the final decision on war elsewhere would be left to the USSR. Communist officials, however, are absolutely confident that the United Nations will not use the atom bomb.  3. The Soviets have apparently convinced the Chinese Communists that the United States will not be capable of war for the next six months and that settlement of the Korean difficulty to prevent its spreading into war must occur with in that period. More than a six-month delay on an agreement would be undestrable for the Communists and the Soviets since the United States will then be capable of war, which the Chinese and Soviets do not desire.*  4. The Chinese Communists are worried about the concentration of their best-trained and best-equipped armics in Lanchuria and North China. They agreed to a full-scale entry into the Korean conflict only after the UCST promised 300,000 Soviet troops as well as naval and air support in case of war with the United States should arm and uso Japanese troops in Korea, the			25X1A R	RETURN TI	20/(1/(	FO.
that, by the time they reach it, an agreement will be reached with the United Nations and the United States which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe that when United Nations troops are pushed back to the 38th Parallel, they will either withdraw from Korea entirely or reach such an agreement with the Chinese.  2. Use of the atomic bomb in Korea as tactical support for United Nations troops will not precipitate war in other areas. Use of strategic atom bombing inside the Manchurian border is another matter; the final decision on war elsewhere would be left to the USSE. Communist officials, however, are absolutely confident that the United Nations will not use the atom bomb.  3. The Soviets have apparently convinced the Chinese Communists that the United States will not be capable of war for the next six months and that settlement of the Korean difficulty to prevent its spreading into war must occur within that period. More than a six-month delay on an agreement would be undesirable for the Communists and the Soviets since the United States will then be capable of war, which the Chinese and Soviets de not desire.*  4. The Chinese Communists are worried about the concentration of their best-trained and best-equipped armies in Lianchuria and North China. They agreed to a full-scale entry into the Korean conflict only after the USSE promised 300,000 Soviet troops as well as naval and air support in case of war with the United States.*		IFORMATION	THIS IS UNEVALUA	ung of the Espionage act so fit ansmission on the Revelation if the thorized person is pro-	tates within the bear 2. As amended. Its yea In any manner to an i	B. S. C., 31 AND DF ITS CONTENT
that, by the time they reach it, an agreement will be reached with the United Nations and the United States which will to a large extent grant the Communist demands. They believe that when United Nations troops are pushed back to the 38th Parallel, they will either withdraw from Korea entirely or reach such an agreement with the Chinese.  2. Use of the atomic bomb in Korea as tactical support for United Nations troops will not precipitate war in other areas. Use of strategic atom bombing inside the Manchurian border is another matter; the final decision on war elsewhere would be left to the USSR. Communist officials, however, are absolutely confident that the United Nations will not use the atom bomb.  3. The Soviets have apparently convinced the Chinese Communists that the United States will not be capable of war for the next six months and that settlement of the Korean difficulty to prevent its spreading into war must occur within that period. More than a six-month delay on an agreement would be undesirable for the Communists and the Soviets since the United States will then be capable of war, which the Chinese and Soviets do not desire.*  4. The Chinese Communists are worried about the concentration of their best-trained and best-equipped armies in Manchuria and North China. They agreed to a full-scale entry into the Korean conflict only after the USSR promised 300,000 Soviet troops as well as naval and air support in case of war with the United States.*	25/1/
clsion on war elsewhere would be left to the USSR. Communist officials, however, are absolutely confident that the United Nations will not use the atom bomb.  3. The Soviets have apparently convinced the Chinese Communists that the United States will not be capable of war for the next six months and that settlement of the Korean difficulty to prevent its spreading into war must occur within that period. More than a six-month delay on an agreement would be undesirable for the Communists and the Soviets since the United States will then be capable of war, which the Chinese and Soviets do not desire.*  4. The Chinese Communists are worried about the concentration of their best-trained and best-equipped armies in Hanchuria and North China. They agreed to a full-scale entry into the Korean conflict only after the USSR premised 300,000 Soviet troops as well as naval and air support in case of war with the United States.*  5. If the United States should arm and use Japanese troops in Korea, the		d with the xtent grant s troops are from Korea ed Nations	agreement will be a which will to a lathat when United New will either with with the Chinese.  actical support for ther areas. Use of	e time they reach it, an one and the United States at demands. They believe to the 38th Parallel, the reach such an agreement atomic bomb in Korea as a not precipitate war in o	that, by the United National the Communication pushed back entirely or Use of the a troops will	2.
United States will not be capable of war for the next six months and that settlement of the Korean difficulty to prevent its spreading into war must occur within that period. More than a six-month delay on an agreement would be undesirable for the Communists and the Soviets since the United States will then be capable of war, which the Chinese and Soviets do not desire.*  4. The Chinese Communists are worried about the concentration of their best-trained and best-equipped armies in Hanchuria and North China. They agreed to a full-scale entry into the Korean conflict only after the USSE promised 300,000 Soviet troops as well as naval and air support in case of war with the United States.*  5. If the United States should arm and use Japanese troops in Korea, the		t officials.	to the USSR. Com	ar elsewhere would be lef e absolutely confident th	cision on wa however, are best-trained and best-equipped armies in Hanchuria and North China. They agreed to a full-scale entry into the Korean conflict only after the USSE promised 300,000 Soviet troops as well as naval and air support in case of war with the United States.*  5. If the United States should arm and use Japanese troops in Korea, the		nths and that into war on an agreement	war for the next s o prevent its spre than a six-month d ts and the Soviets	es will not be capable of of the Korean difficulty within that period. More desirable for the Communi	United State settlement o must occur n would be und States will	3.
CONFIDENTIAL		China. They	in Hanchuria and 1	d and best-equipped armic full-scale entry into th 0,000 Soviet troops as we	pest—trained agreed to a promised 300
		rea, the	so Japanese troops	ed States should arm and m	If the Unite	5.
			NFIDENTIAL		CL
STATE X NAVY X NSRB	25)			NSRB	X NAVY X
Document No. 2	ed to	Tent is hereby regred	1 1000
Deglassified	the 25X	Company of the River of the Riv	: CIA-RDP82-00457	Deglass Nied Changed To: TS S	Арр	•

Approved For Release 2004/01/21 : CIA-RDP82-00457R006500340005-5

COPOT

CONFIDENTIAL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

25X1A

- 2 -

Chinese Communists would make this the main issue of an all-Asia propaganda campaign, confident that this would rally Asia and particularly the Chinese people, who now do not wish war with the United States.* The Communists also fear the use of Japanese regardless of the propaganda value and will press increasingly for a Japanese peace treaty in which they participate in order to end this possibility.
	25 X1

CONFIDENTIAL

SHOP